The matrimonial dispute between the husband Suresh Kumar and the wife Sulabha Kumari has given rise to this writ petition which has been sent to the adalath. Today we discussed the matter with the counsel appearing for the appellant and respondent in the presence of the petitioner and the respondent. There is an order of interim maintenance by the Family Court. The parties have settled the matter on the following terms:

2. The petitioner Suresh Kumar will pay Rs. One lakh by demand draft in the name of Sulabha Kumari on or before 5/4/2007. After receiving Rs. One lakh, both parties will file a joint application for divorce by consent. He will also pay an additional amount of Rs.One lakh on or before 1.10.2007. The deposit, if any, in the Family Court, Trivandrum can be withdrawn by the respondent. If these amounts are paid, the joint application for divorce will stand allowed and the marriage will stand dissolved.

It is also agreed that Sri.Sureshkumar will not have any claim in respect of any property standing in the name of Sulabha Kumari. If the amounts are not paid within the time fixed, the order passed by the lower court will stand confirmed.
